

UNIVERSITY OF ABERDEEN

CIVIL LAW CENTRE'S
SCOTTISH LEGAL HISTORY
CONFERENCE
29TH JULY 2011

A one-day conference providing a forum for academic presentation, discussion and debate of Scottish legal history and the development of Scots law.

Speakers include:

JOHN FINLAY, SENIOR LECTURER, GLASGOW
Notaries Public in Scotland, 1700-1799

CRAIG NEWBERRY-JONES, PHD CANDIDATE, EXETER
Our Learned Friends? The Shifting Public Image of Barrister in the 19th Century Press

KAREN BASTON, PHD CANDIDATE, EDINBURGH
Law Books in the Library of Charles Areskine, Lord Tinwald (1680-1763)

ANDREW SIMPSON, LECTURER, ABERDEEN
The History of the Presumption of Ownership in Moveable Property

JOHN MCLEOD, LECTURER, GLASGOW
The Reception of the actio Pauliana into Scots Law

PAUL DU PLESSIS, SENIOR LECTURER, EDINBURGH
The Idea of Contract in Early Modern Europe

All those with an interest in Scottish legal history are warmly invited to attend.
To register for the conference email adelyn.wilson@abdn.ac.uk.
There is no charge for attendance.